WORK EXPERIENCE

● Internship

CosmoHub

October 2022 - July 2023

- Participated in an intensive Swift programming language learning program.
- Developed foundational skills in Swift, including syntax, data types, and basic iOS app development concepts.
- Collaborated with mentors and fellow interns to complete coding exercises and projects.
- Gained insights into the software development process and best practices.
- Demonstrated a strong commitment to learning and self-improvement in the field of iOS development.

● Professional Development

Freelance Work

2017-2021

During this period, I pursued personal and professional growth through a combination of freelance work and continuing education. As a freelancer, I managed various projects, demonstrating my skills in time management, project management, and independent work. Additionally, I contributed to the startup NGO "Practical Mom," where I created a website, generated content, and produced instructional videos aimed at making motherhood more practical and accessible. This experience allowed me to develop valuable skills in web development, content creation, and video production. Furthermore, I dedicated time to continuing my education, enhancing my knowledge and skills in areas related to iOS development and software engineering.
